AYER'S Sarsaparilla

IS THE GREAT

Blood-Purifier,

NERVE TONIC,

—AND—

STRENGTH-BUILDER.

It attacks and breaks up every humor, cures skin eruptions, restores exhausted vitality, and drives out every element of disease. Sufferers from indigestion, general debility, or any other ailment arising from impure blood, should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It gives strength to the weak, and builds up the system generally. By its use food is made nourishing, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable.

cago letter carriers.

Further news about the hurricane in the Gulf of California tells of towns and sugar plantations destroyed with immense damage.

Destitution and famine were left in the track, and many lives were lost.

Discussions among leading Republicans are reported, which indicate that at the coming session the tariff will not be disturbed excepting to protect wool and mineral ores.

There were 7500 wheels in line in the bicycle parade in connection with the "Festival of Mountain and Plain" at Denver.

State Bank at Duluth, Minn., is missing, and also about $15,000 of the bank's money.

The net earnings of the Northern Pacific for the last year were greater by $1,384,264 than those of the preceding year.

A. K. Ward, secretary, treasurer and manager of the Memphis

Barrel and Heading Company, has disappeared, leaving outstanding forged paper to the extent of $100,000.

Frank C. Ives is about to become a full-fledged manufacturer of billiard tables at Chicago. He has already applied for a patent for a new cushion he has devised and which will be fitted to the tables his firm will make.

Harry Russell, the notorious burglar who escaped from Ludlow street jail, New York, on July 4, has been arrested in Belgium.

Two other men and a woman were arrested with him, and the men are supposed to be Joe Killoran and Charlie Allen, who escaped from jail with Russell.

Thirty Mormon saints have left Philadelphia by steamer to seek converts for two years in Great Britain and the Continent.

and left a wife and one son.

Edward Atkinson of Boston delivered an address before the Bankers' Association at Atlanta, Ga., advocating the issuance of $90,000,000 of bonds by the Government to redeem and retire the outstanding notes of 1890. An indirect reference to President Cleveland in Atkinson's speech was loudly applauded.

Shocking Incident.

Miss Nettie Jackson, humorist and impersonator, appeared before an audience of 1200 people at a Y. M. C. A. entertainment in Chicago, dressed in knickerbockers. She was recognized and a score of people left the hall.

Secretary Oates expressed his sorrow after withdrawing from the room, and said such an incident would never occur again in that hall.

Hesper Murderers Executed.

Hans Hansen and Thomas St.

Clair, who took part in the murder of Mate Fitzgerald on the bark Hesper, on the high seas between Newcastle and Honolulu, were hanged within the walls of San Quentin prison, California, on Friday, Oct. 18. It was the first execution under the Federal authorities ever conducted in California.

The execution was private, only twenty persons being present—officials, clergymen and two representatives of Danish clubs. Both necks were broken by the fall.

Hansen was pronounced dead in nine minutes, but St. Clair's heart did not cease to beat for fourteen minutes. The execution is described as "a perfect one as such things go."

Young Mackay Killed.

John W. Mackay, Jr., the eldest son of John W. Mackay, was thrown from a horse in Paris, France, on the 18th inst. He was rendered unconscious and remained so until evening, when he died. The first news of the fatal accident to his son reached John W. Mackay while he was enjoying a chat with John D. Rosenfeld and one or two other gentlemen in the Pacific Postal telegraph office on Market street. It was a cablegram saying briefly that his son was seriously ill. Two other messages came in quick succession, the last one announcing the fatal result. John W. was 25 years of age, several years older than his brother Clarence. He was educated in London and Paris.

Having been fond of horses and a fine rider, the cause of his death was a great surprise.

Defense of Peary.

Professor R. D. Salisbury, who recently returned from Greenland with the Peary relief expedition, spoke at the University of Chicago on "Peary's Work in the Arctic Regions." Professor Salisbury declared that Lieutenant Peary knows more of the Esquimaux, their life, customs and language than any other man living.

"Lieutenant Peary," he said,

"was the first man to attempt extensive Arctic explorations by means of overland travel. He has authentically established the northern limits of Greenland, made an accurate chart of 1000 miles of the west coast, discover-

CLEVELAND AND CASTLE.

THE HAWAIIAN MINISTER PRE-

SENTS HIS CREDENTIALS.

Kind Wishes Expressed by President

Cleveland to Minister Castle for the People of Hawaii.

The most important piece of news received by the China of real interest to the people of Hawaii outside the ordinary run of murders, suicides, prize fights and weddings usually found in the big coast newspapers, was the presentation by Minister Castle of his credentials to President Cleveland at Washington on Oct. 21st.

Our enterprising afternoon contemporary delayed the publication of its edition yesterday until about 4 o'clock to get in a few items of news from the Coast, but we fail to find any mention of Mr. Castle's reception by the President
